REOPENING GUIDELINES & RESOURCES FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Dear Merchant,

Forgive the multiple emails, I wanted to get this information to you as soon as possible - Governor Newsom stated yesterday that the state is officially moving into Phase 2 of the Resilience Roadmap plan.

Beginning today, May 8th, certain areas may start reopening Curbside Retail including but not limited to: bookstores, jewelry stores, toy stores, clothing stores, shoe stores, home furnishing stores, sporting goods stores, antique stores, music stores, florists. The Governor's statement adds that this will be phased in, starting with curbside pickup and delivery only, until further notice.

The California Department of Public Health has many informational resources available for your reference.

Here are a few:
